

CURRICULUM VITAE

PERSONAL DATA

---

NAME: José Antonio Haro Peralta.

BIRTH DATE: 01/29/1986, Granada, Spain.

ADDRESS: Centro de Ciencias Humanas y Sociales – Consejo Superior de Investigaciones Científicas, C/ Albasanz, 26-28. Madrid 28037 (Spain). Office 2E13.

CONTACT: Phone: (+34) 91 602 27 70; Fax: (+34) 91 602 29 71; e-mail: jaharo@usal.es, joseantonio.haro@cchs.csic.es

ACADEMIC DATA

---

EDUCATION

Ph.D. in Islamic Studies, University of Salamanca, expected completion by November 2014.

Title: Las Estructuras Urbanas de Bagdad durante el siglo XI: un enfoque social, económico e institucional (The Urban Structures of Baghdad during the 11th Century: A Social, Economic and Institutional Approach).

Supervisors: Therese Martin (CSIC-CCHS) and Rachid El-Hour (University of Salamanca).

M.A. in East Asian Studies, University of Salamanca, 2010-2011.

B.A. in Arabic and Islamic Studies, University of Salamanca, 2005-2010.

CAP (Certificado de Aptitud Pedagógica = Teaching Aptitude Certificate), University of Salamanca, 2008-2009.

B.A. in History, University of Salamanca, 2004-2008.

EMPLOYMENT

Researcher in “Reassessing the Roles of Women as ‘Makers’ of Medieval Art and Architecture”, directed by Therese Martin and funded by a Starting Grant (n° 263036) of the European Research Council, September 2011-November 2014.

Research Assistant to Patricia Crone at the Institute for Advanced Study, Princeton (NJ), July-August 2010.

SCHOLARSHIPS

Scholarship for collaboration at the Alfonso IX Center for the History of Universities, University of Salamanca, 2007-2008.

PRESENTATIONS IN CONFERENCES

“Bagdad durante el siglo XI: métodos para estimar su prosperidad”, XVèmes Rencontres Dîwân, CSIC-CCHS and Casa de Velázquez, Madrid, 4-6 June 2012.

“El papel del patronazgo femenino en la expansión y consolidación de las madrasas durante los siglos XI-XIII”, EOS700, Seven Centuries of Oriental Studies in Salamanca, University of Salamanca, 28-30 September 2011.

WORKING PAPERS

“La Transición Demográfica en Japón, Corea del Sur y China: un análisis comparado”, DT-AEHE nº 1110, December 2011.

LANGUAGES: Spanish (native), English (fluent), Arabic (strong working level), reading level in French, Italian and Portuguese, three semesters of study in German, two years of Biblical Hebrew, one year of Aramaic, one year of Korean.

RESEARCH INTERESTS

Social, economic and demographic history of the Middle East.